Foreword

We, the Seniors of 1970, present in this book the story of our growth and development through the years and a pictorial account of our senior year. For us, editing the '70 BRIDGE has been a pleasure and we hope that you will get as much pleasure reading it.

Eighteen years ago we started our long, long journey toward adulthood. Now that we are nearing our goal we hope that we have made some imprint on the lives of others with whom we have come in contact. We hope and trust that we, "departing, leave behind us/ Footprints in the sand of time."

Dedication

We, the Senior Class of Macon County High School, dedicate the 1970 BRIDGE to

who has earned our love and respect by contributing years of useful service to us and hundreds of other young people of Macon County.

Mr. Stinson came to Macon County to teach Vocational Agriculture in 1951, the year that most of us Seniors were born. He saw us enter the first grade, he watched us through elementary and junior high school, and he taught us and teased us through high school. Now we are graduating and Mr. Stinson is retiring and things will no longer be the same around Macon County High School.

Of course, there will be another Senior Class – and another and another – but there will never be another Mr. Stinson.

A MESSAGE FROM THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

A good education is the most important asset that a young person growing up in today's world can acquire. Education and know-how are essential in the competitive life that the present day individual lives.

The students and faculty of Macon County High School are a credit to their county, not only in academic and vocational achievement of the students but also in sportsman-like conduct by both participants and fans in athletic contests. The most important factor in determining the quality of education is the degree of local support of the school program. Macon County High School will continue to improve as long as the citizens of the community are willing to make sacrifices in its behalf as they have done in the past.

DOES SO MUCH – COSTS SO LITTLE . . .

The world today is looking for men who are not for sale; men who are honest, sound from centre to circumference, true to the heart's core; men with consciences as steady as the needle to the pole; men who will stand for the right if the heavens totter and the earth reels; men who can tell the truth and look the world right in the eye;

Men who neither brag nor run; men who neither lag nor flinch; men who can have courage without shouting it; men in whom the courage of everlasting life runs still, deep, and strong; men who know their message and tell it;

Men who know their place and fill it; men who know their business and attend to it; men who will not lie, shirk or dodge; men who are not too lazy to work nor too proud to be poor; men who are willing to eat what they have earned and wear what they have paid for;

Men who are not ashamed to say "No" with emphasis and who are not ashamed to say, "I can't afford it."

Danny '70

As we and the other members of the Class of '70, who were not lucky enough to be with us on this 'fun day', leave Macon County High School, we want to thank all of you, parents, patrons, teachers, and students, for all the many things you have done for us in the past twelve years. We sincerely hope that as we mature, we will be able to help those who follow us, as we have been helped by others.

Let us all work together to have peace and a good life at home and abroad.

The Seniors of 1970
